Employer deducts those costs from your pre-tax salary.

ELECTRIC VEHICLES

Electric vehicles (EVs) are one of the fastest growing automotive segments globally. They mark the start of our transition from fossil fuel-powered vehicles to a cleaner, greener way of driving towards a more sustainable planet. Unlike queuing up at gas stations, the majority of powering an EV can be done while you're at home. With advancements in technology, charging times are decreasing rapidly to up to 6-8 hours or overnight for a full charge. The net emissions generated by EVs are lower than an internal combustion engine vehicle (ICEV). With zero tailpipe emissions, they emit a fraction of global warming pollutants generated by fuel-powered vehicles. As grids become cleaner, EVs become cleaner too.

Discover how StreetFleet can support your fleet's transition to EVs or help you secure a novated lease for an EV. Contact us today at 1300 273 359, or leave an inquiry at streetfleet.com.au/contact.
